

How Bt Works

Ingestion of Bt's crystal proteins from treated leaves.
Feeding stops within minutes after crystals are solubilized in the gut, and the gut cells are damaged.

After toxin damage to gut, spores enter through gut wall and germinate rapidly in the body cavity causing blood poisoning.

Larvae stop feeding in minutes and die in 1 to 3 days.